

FRONTIER DAYS AFFAIRS CLOSE

Lot of Detail Work Remains to Complete Financial Statement Which is Due Soon; Growth of the Institution.

(From Wednesday's Daily) Within the next few days the Prescott Frontier Days association will be in a position to render its financial statement to the guarantors of the 1922 contests. Since the close of the contests, the management has been busy arranging first this detail and then that. The steers which had been placed on pasture at the Weston ranch were sold Saturday thru the untiring efforts of Bill Johnson, assistant arena director.

The mass of data and figures and the checking of all bills is no small task. It can be pointed out with pride by the Frontier days officials that at least one institution in the state of Arizona has been managed to date without an official receiving one cent of remuneration. The Frontier days have grown so that today they compare favorably with the Arizona State fair and the unselfish work of the Frontier Days association officials is something that stands in a class by itself.

As a matter of general information it is interesting to note the manner in which funds are received and disbursed by the Frontier Days association. Committee chairman submit their budgets and work as near as is humanly possible within that amount. When a bill is contracted it must be approved first by the chairman of the originating committee, then a voucher is drawn which is signed by the originating chairman then by the executive chairman and executive secretary, after which it is presented to the treasurer, who makes of the voucher a voucher check. While the enormous detail work connected with such a transaction is apparent, all officials approve this method of handling the finances.

Chairman Othrel of the finance committee is particularly anxious for those whose names appear on the subscription rolls to make their return immediately. Only a few of these items remain, as a majority of the business interests preferred to become outright guarantors.

METHODIST ASSEMBLY TO BE LARGEST EVER HELD IN THIS STATE

The second annual assembly of the Arizona conference, Methodist Episcopal church, South, will be held in Prescott, August 8 to 15.

This promises to be the most important gathering of the southern branch of Methodism ever held in the state. Indications are that there will be a large attendance of Methodists from all parts of the state.

Since Arizona is now a separate conference, the different layman's activities of the conference will organize at this time.

A very interesting program has been arranged for the eight days. Classes in Bible study, mission study, Epworth league methods, Sunday school methods and vocational guidance will be taught each day by experts.

The out-of-state speakers and teachers will be Bishop Horace M. DuBose, Charlottesville, Va.; Rev. S. M. Check, Pomona, Calif.; Rev. Maurice M. Johnson, Los Angeles, Calif.; Miss Minnie E. Kennedy, Nashville, Tenn.; Miss Minnie M. Webb, San Antonio, Texas; Mr. E. O. Harbin, Nashville, Tenn.

Every pastor and member of the Arizona conference is urged to attend. Let us make this assembly a grand success. This assembly is for everybody that may be interested. Come and we shall enjoy a delightful time together, socially, intellectually, and spiritually.

"Come up a mile and smile awhile among the pines of old Yavapai," is the slogan adopted by the conference.

Additional information may be had by writing to Eugene Gilliam, 1609 East Van Buren street, Phoenix.

DISMISS CASE

Emmett Roe, charged with snatching money amounting to $80 from the hands of an Indian named Jack on Tuesday evening, yesterday was freed when charges against him were dismissed by Justice of the Peace McLane. Witnesses appeared who declared Roe was not the culprit. The Indian, who had previously complained against Roe, also stated the defendant was not the man who had stolen his money.

MOTOR SHOW OF N.A.F. GROWING

Gary Vyne Finds Dealers Anxious to Make This Year's Automobile Show a Dinger; Dept. Heads Meet Tomorrow.

(From Wednesday's Daily) With the Frontier days almost a closed incident for the year 1922, the Northern Arizona State Fair association workers are now showing keen interest in the coming of the tenth annual Northern Arizona State fair, which will be held on October 19, 20 and 21.

Gary O. Vyne, superintendent of the automobile show, predicts that this year's show will open the eyes of the natives. Automobile dealers are going to make of the automobile show this year something of beauty, as well as extensive in appearance. All dealers are showing the right spirit and every dealer interviewed yesterday by Superintendent Vyne stated their desire to display their goods in a manner worthy of the name of the show.

Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock all department heads, superintendents and workers will meet in the assembly room of the Yavapai County Chamber of Commerce, when reports and budgets will be received and acted upon.

Immediately following this meeting, the prize list copy will be given to the printer so that prize lists can be distributed throughout northern Arizona to the farmers, stockmen, miners, those interested in art, education, home economics, textile fabrics, poultry and the many departments which go to make up the fair.

In addition to the reports of committee chairman and superintendents, other matters of importance will be taken up by the association.

OLD INDIAN SKULL FOUND BY CREW ON HIGHWAY TO MAYER

(From Wednesday's Daily) A relic of the old Indian days is on view in the window of the Birch cafe adjoining the St. Michael hotel, in the shape of a skull brought in last week by members of the road crew employed on the Prescott-Mayer highway.

The skull was unearthed by the men while grading the road. It is estimated by Bob Birch to be about 100 years old. From the condition of the skull, it is apparently that of an elderly Indian. This supposition is supported by a statement of Col. Fred Bowler that it was a custom of the Apaches to kill members of the tribe, both men and women, when they had outlived their usefulness.

On the right side of the skull, on top, two fracture marks are still to be seen, and a third is found on the left side, lending color to the belief that the Indian was killed. The relic is in a good state of preservation, though two or three of the teeth have come out since it was found. It is in two parts, the jaws having come separate from the cranium and upper part of the face.

OLDEST MINE SHAFT IN GROOM CREEK IS UNCOVERED IN WORK

(From Wednesday's Daily) The oldest mining shaft in the Groom Creek district was uncovered last week by H. H. Keays while working on the Emporia mine of the Golden Dragon Mining company in that district. This is the shaft that was sunk by Bob Groom, Mr. Keays said yesterday upon his return from the mine to his home in this city.

The monument placed by Bob Groom was also found, and although it was mainly undecipherable, Mr. Keays was able to make out the date, thus showing that the shaft was sunk in the year 1878. An old horn spoon and an old metate were also found buried near the spot where the shaft was uncovered.

SENTENCED TO JAIL

A sentence of 30 days was imposed yesterday on Florencio Ramirez when he appeared before Justice of the Peace McLane to answer a charge of assault. It was alleged that he had beaten Mrs. Ramirez. In view of the fact that the couple have four children and that their father is their only support, Justice McLane was lenient.

STOLE INDIAN'S MONEY. CHARGE

Emmett Roe Arrested on Complaint of Indian Named Jack. Who Says Prisoner Snatched Roll of Bills from Him.

(From Thursday's Daily) Charged with snatching a roll of bills containing $80 from the hands of an Indian who gave his name as Jack, Emmett Roe yesterday was lodged in the county jail. Roe was arrested by Deputy Sheriff L. B. Cannon upon complaint of Indian Jack, who called at the sheriff's office and complained that he had been robbed in the manner described, on South Montezuma street Tuesday evening. A complaint was made out and a warrant obtained, and Roe was taken into custody.

When arrested, a search of the prisoner failed to reveal the stolen money. He had no money in his pockets, the officer said.

POSTOFFICE IN YEAR POSSIBLE

(From Thursday's Daily) It is considered likely that construction of the long-awaited federal building to house the Prescott postoffice, United States district court and other federal offices here may be brought about within the next few months, according to J. A. Mayne, of Selma, Ala., superintendent of plumbing installation at Fort Whipple under a contract awarded by the government to William Wilbey of Alabama.

Mr. Mayne last night left for Oklahoma, where he will visit his family before returning to the Wilbey headquarters in Alabama. Before leaving he said that Mr. Wilbey is planning to bid on plumbing work for the federal building here. It is Mr. Mayne's understanding that the government intends to let the contract for the Prescott federal building within the next year.

The government has owned the tract of land on which the federal building eventually will be built, for six or eight years. It lies on the southwest corner of Goodwin and Cortez streets, and the construction of a building there will add to the "civic center" of Prescott.

JUDGE RULES BABY MUST VISIT BETWEEN BOTH HER PARENTS

(From Thursday's Daily) Judge Frank Lyman of Phoenix yesterday denied a petition of Melita Gurley for the custody of four-year-old "Patsy," her daughter, and ordered that the present arrangement, under which the mother, and George Merritt, the father, each keep the child for a half year at a time, must continue.

Mrs. Gurley, who is now a resident of Tucson, sought to set aside the previous order of the court apportioning the time of the child, and gain entire custody of her.

Mr. and Mrs. Merritt were divorced on an allegation of desertion preferred by the husband.

FINANCIAL AID IS GIVEN LEGION; ITS MEMBERS ARE ALIVE

(From Thursday's Daily) American Legion finances are improving, Commander Akin reported to Ernest Love last night. Since the first of the year the indebtedness of the post has been cut to below $100.

Mr. Akin told the post that during the head of a message to the veterans, them to affiliate with the legion, and as a result, the same day, he had received a commendatory letter about the legion work, enclosing a check for $100 from R. N. Fredericks, president of the Prescott State bank.

The commander complimented the post on its fidelity to duty when anything comes up demanding the services of its members, and said that while many members are unable on account of their health or business to attend the regular meetings, he felt that the post was alive and willing to get behind legion projects.

Secretary Hoover will be accompanied by Mrs. Hoover and Clarence C. Stetson, secretary of the commission.

Since the termination of the hearings at Cheyenne on April 2, the commissioners have been making a careful study of the evidence to be presented at the hearings held during the latter part of March and early part of April in the states of the Colorado basin. They are embodying their ideas in suggested forms of compacts which will be submitted at the Santa Fe meeting, at which time it is hoped that an agreement between the states will be entered into.

LECTURES ARE POPULAR AMONG THE DELEGATES

The Arizona Baptist assembly meeting at Pine Dells is popular and full of interest. While today is but the second day of the meeting, the enrollment is already far in excess of the expectation. The demand for class lectures on the part of those attending has brought about an adjustment in the lecture periods so as to allow the delegates to attend all the lectures.

The choir rehearsal begins at 8 a. m. The first lecture, "Old Testament Prophets," by Rev. Sam P. Gott, pastor of Salvary Baptist church, Phoenix, begins at 8:30. This is followed at 9:10 by a study of foreign mission conducted by Rev. F. P. Manley of India. A class in personal work is conducted by Rev. E. E. Hawes of Mesa at 9:50 and this is followed by chapel service led by Rev. J. D. Springston at 10:20. A lecture on the new Testament follows at 10:55 and Sunday school work is presented at 11:15 by Miss Myrtle Love of Los Angeles. The concluding lecture is given by Rev. Thomas B. Frizzell of Philadelphia, Pa., on young people's work.

The afternoon is given over to visiting and recreation and the evening program of song, stereoscopic lecture and popular address begins at 7:30 each evening. Rev. Sam P. Gott presides at each evening service, and Dr. Springston has charge of the program throughout.

SELIGMAN ROAD IN GOOD SHAPE

Traveler Writes Chamber of Commerce That Highway is in Better Condition Than Ash Fork Road After Rains.

(From Friday's Daily) The road between Prescott and Seligman is in fair condition, except for some rough spots on which road crews are working, according to information received yesterday at the chamber of commerce from P. A. Oliver of California, who is traveling to the Utah side of the Grand canyon. Mr. Oliver was in Prescott last week and a few days ago set out to make the trip overland to the canyon and around to the Utah side, a trip which will take him about a month. In his communication, he says:

"Crews are working on the rough spots about 25 miles south of Seligman. The road from Prescott to Seligman is better, in my opinion, than the Ash Fork road, especially after the rains."

MRS. L. C. DERRICK CALLED BY DEATH

(From Friday's Daily) Mrs. Leslie Derrick died yesterday morning at her home on South Mt. Vernon street. The end came as a period to the sufferings of a brave woman, whose last few months were a struggle against an incurable illness.

With her at the death bed were Mr. Derrick and the dying woman's mother, Mrs. Clara L. Helmer of Everett, Wash., who had come to be near her daughter during the illness that was known to be terminable only by death.

The body will be conveyed to Clinton, Wis., for burial, and mother and husband will accompany it.

Mrs. Derrick came to Prescott 15 years ago as a teacher in the Prescott High school, where she taught history and English. She had graduated from Beloit college in 1899 with the degree of A. B. and had taken her M. A. degree from that institution in 1901 following her return from a year of travel and study in Europe. It was in 1907 that she came to Prescott.

During her service in the high school, Miss Edwards, as she was then, assisted in bringing the institution to its present recognition as a preparatory school. She worked under the direction of Louise Gibbs, now Mrs. Frank Hart, in this work.

In 1912 she became the wife of Mr. Derrick, then cashier of the Prescott National bank.

It can be said of the deceased that she left her impress on her community, not alone by reason of her work with its chief educational institution, but because of her wonderful character and warm personality. The fortitude she displayed during her final illness is an index to her remarkable strength.

The funeral services, by which the community may recognize the passing of a valued member, will be held at the home Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The Rev. Lee Howard of the Congregational church will officiate. The burial will take place on August 10 at the girlhood home in Clinton beside the grave of her father.

(From Friday's Daily) W. A. Walker, familiarly known as Webb Walker, an intimate of many old-timers in the city, dropped dead in the hallway of Brinkmeyer's hotel at 6 o'clock yesterday evening. His death was ascribed to heart-failure, although a coroner's jury which was called together by Coroner McLane will not render its verdict until today.

Webb Walker years ago, and for several years prior to the passage of the Arizona "bone-dry" law in 1915, was the proprietor of a saloon at Mayer. During his life there and in Prescott he made many friends. Announcement of funeral services will be made later.
